

JOSEPH VIAL'S DEATH.

The Agent-General has written to the Premier concerning the death, in London, of Joseph Vial, the New South Wales violinist who went to study in Germany, was interned there at the outbreak of war, and subsequently sent to England.

On the occasion of the funeral Mr. Wise sent a wreath inscribed, "In sincere sympathy, from the Government of New South Wales."